- An average course load is six courses, or 30 credits, per semester. Alder Grove students are required to attempt at least five courses, or 25 credits, each semester. If a student wishes to attempt more than eight courses, or 40 credits, all student work must be reviewed at the end of the semester.
- Alder Grove Charter School will provide the parent and student with teacher services, instructional materials, and other necessary items and resources as required to meet the Benchmark Standards for each course.
- The student agrees to complete the assigned work independently and meet face to face with the teacher at least every 20 school days and that no more than 20 school days may elapse between the date an assignment is given by the teacher and the due date.

Signatures below indicate student, parent and CT have reviewed the course content, text options, assignments, expectations and grading criteria for each of the courses listed above. If the course is created, or if any alterations have been made to a course in the AGCS course catalog, the appropriate course approval paperwork is attached to this form.
